

A few years ago some student interns working in my office initiated the story walk project. Pages from children's books are placed at nature trails around the town. I am very pleased that the Greenburgh Nature Center is continuing this initiative and that will be sponsoring our next Story Walk on July 15th. Please take your child to the nature center –enjoy the trails and a great children's story.

PAUL FEINER

Greenburgh Nature Center
99 Dromore Road, Scarsdale, NY 10583 / 914-723-3470 / www.greenburghnaturecenter.org

An innovative program that combines reading and nature walks

STORY WALK 2012

Featuring the popular children's story Box Turtle at Silver Pond Lane by Susan Korman

Sunday, July 15 - Sunday, September 30

Kick-Off Event
Sunday, July 15 at 1PM

Pages from Box Turtle at Silver Pond Lane will be placed along the Story Walk Trail

- Free refreshments courtesy of California Pizza Kitchen (CPK)
- Free admission
- Free bookmarks, good for one free CPKids Meal

- For children ages 8 and younger

- Activity sheets and raffle for a CPK $20 gift certificate

The storyWalk Project was created by Anne Ferguson of Montpelier, VT and developed in collaboration with the Vermont Bicycle & Pedestrian Coalition and the Kellogg-Hubbard Library.

Sponsored by:

Stop by the Manor House for a CPK bookmark, good for one free CPKids Meal

The Greenburgh Nature Center's mission is to offer inspiring, hands-on environmental education experiences, to foster an appreciation of nature, and to promote sustainable practices.

Please help us by spreading the word out to family and friends to participate in our events. Use social media, such as Twitter and Facebook to spread the word to one and all.

Forward email