INCIDENT: Motor Vehicle Accident/ Pedestrian Struck

At approximately 8:20 AM Greenburgh PD police and EMS units responded to Central Park Avenue near Campus Place for a report of a pedestrian struck by a motor vehicle. Upon their arrival medical attention was provided to a 14 year old male found in the roadway, mid- block between Campus Place and the Central Avenue and Underhill Rd/ Old Army Rd intersection. The 14 year old, who did sustain injuries, was transported to Westchester Medical Center and is reported to be in stable condition. The early investigation revealed that he was struck by a vehicle traveling southbound in the left lane of traffic as he crossed eastbound. The operator of the vehicle stopped immediately and attempted to render aid to the victim. There are no criminal charges pending at this time. The Greenburgh Police Department Detective Division is conducting an accident investigation. Anyone that may have witnessed the accident is asked to contact the GPD Detective Division at 914-989-1725.
